ARTWORKS SAN DIEGO San Diego, California

ArtWorks San Diego is a company exclusively dedicated to the storage, installation and shipping of fine art and antiques. Founded in 2007, the first company of its kind in San Diego, ArtWorks San Diego offers a full range of museum-quality art handling services for museums, galleries, and collectors of fine art. Their comprehensive services include: climate controlled security storage; sculpture maintenance; restoration service and estate management; installation, packing, and crating, and world-wide shipping by air, land or ocean. Each of their art handlers is professionally trained to utilize museum quality wrapping and packing techniques so their clients can be assured that their valuables are handled with archival materials and years of experience. ArtWorks San Diego maintains a climate and humidity-controlled 20,000 square foot warehouse for the care and custody of treasured artworks. Whether works are stored for only a short period between transits or for extended long-term storage, their state-of-the-art warehouse provides a secure, protected and environmentally sound home for all fine works of art. ¹
