DISNEYLAND

Anaheim, California

Disneyland requires no introduction as it's popularly known as the happiest place on earth. There are six Disney resorts worldwide with a total of twelve parks in California, Florida, Tokyo, Paris, Hong Kong, and China.

The first Disneyland Park was built in Anaheim, California and opened on July 17, 1955. It is the only theme park designed and built to completion under the direct supervision of Walt Disney. He came up with the concept of Disneyland after visiting various amusement parks with his daughters and envisioned the park as a tourist attraction adjacent to his Disney studios in Burbank.

Disneyland has a greater cumulative attendance than any other theme park in the world, with over 726 million visits since its grand opening (as of December 2018). In 2018, the park had approximately 18.6 million visits, making it the second most visited amusement park in the world, the first being the Walt Disney World Resort in Florida. ¹
