MORGAN STANLEY Manhattan, New York

Morgan Stanley is a global investment bank and financial services company, originally founded by Henry Sturgis Morgan and Harold Stanley on September 16, 1935. The company was formed as a result of the Glass-Steagall Act that required United States to separate their commercial banking and investment banking businesses following the Great Depression after a series of bank runs.

Morgan Stanley mobilizes capital to help governments, corporations, institutions and individuals around the world achieve their financial goals. Their financial services are organized into three business units that include: investment banking, investment management services, and institutional securities. Today, the company operates in 1,200 offices across 43 countries globally and employs more than 55,000 staff to service their clients. ¹
